Rav Yitzchok Melber שליט"א of the Toras Hamishpacha Institute has filled a very great void that existed in the Community, by creating invaluable resources to help and guide people in need of very sensitive and pressing requirements related to issues of marriage and reproduction and assist couples who experience problems within their intimate relationship by giving them Halachik and medical guidance.

Rav Melber has spent many years researching the Halacha and the relevant medical knowledge and has kept a close rapport with senior medical doctors and at the same time hand in hand with Communal Rabbonim, thus creating a much needed communal service.

Toras Hamishpacha is only a phone call away and is always ready to connect with those with problems, giving them strength, support and courage to continue. I can highly recommend the sterling work done by this Institute, which undoubtedly deserves our full support.

Sincerely,

Dayan Ch. Ehrentreu
